Over 180 units will follow a route to begin at Vista and Broadway and head eastward to Imperial and Broadway, then south to Lincoln where the procession will officially end.

Famed rodeo star Casey Tibbs is the Grand Marshal of this year's event. Casey won his first RCA World's Championship in rodeo at 19, the youngest ever to do so. He has won more titles in the rodeo world than any other contestant in its history. He now resides in San Diego Country Estates where he is Director of Equestrian Activities.

15 Propositions for June

15 propositions will be listed on the June 9 primary ballot, and from the queries that come to newspaper offices, it is apparent that a great number of voters are unaware of them.

These will be explained in understandable detail (as opposed to the ballot explanation) when election date draws near.

What are the issues? In the simplest language they are:

1— $200 million in bonds to cover public school capital outlay.

2— $500 million in bonds for farm, mobilhome and home aid for California veterans.

3— $175 million in bonds monies for water system improvement.

4— $150 million in bond monies for community college outlay capital.

5— Reduces to a 50 per cent vote the present two-thirds required for legislative passage of taxes on banks, corporations and insurance firms.

6— Eliminates the home/principal office deduction for insurance firms.

7— Clarifies and protects a program of use-value assessments on historical property.

8— Permits state and local funds for deposit to choose between savings and loan firms and banks. Only banks may be presently used.

9— Approves bingo games for charitable purposes.

10— Authorizes a two-thirds vote of the Legislature to issue bonds to refund any outstanding indebtedness.

11— Permits land obtained by various fees of motorists for land purchases to be used for parks if the land is no longer needed for highway use.

12— New formula for increasing rates on certain loans by commercial firms now subject to the usury laws.

13— Lets Legislature establish rules to allow persons more than 61 years of age with low or moderate incomes to postpone payment of property taxes on their homes. Local agencies would be reimbursed by the state.

14— Would approve "nonsubstantive" technical changes in the California constitution as recommended by the Constitutional Revision Commission.

15— Would limit to 60 per cent of output of full power nuclear powerplants in California.

All propositions on the ballot are by California Legislature except 15, which is by initiative petition.

Detente: Russian View

Press types, who watch U.S.-Soviet relations with some amazement, are responsible for a dinner-party byplay story that wasn't important enough for a feature, although it reveals the Soviet view of our diplomacy.

During one of the most recent U.S.-Soviet conferences in Moscow Secretary of State Henry Kissinger was accompanied by the State Department Councelor Helmut Sonnenfeldt. Sonnenfeldt, a top Soviet expert, is Kissinger's right hand man and one of the foremost apologists for detente.

According to the story, Communist Party Secretary L. Brezhnev reached across the table and removed Sonnenfeldt's expensive gold watch from his wrist. In return Brezhnev removed his own watch, one of cheap steel, and handed it to Sonnenfeldt in exchange.

When Sonnefeldt politely protested the unequal exchange, Brezhnev smiled and wrote in Russian that they would again exchange watches at some future time.

And therein is the detente symbolism.

Steel for gold must be about the way Brezhnev looks at his country's relationship with the United States.

The watch-swap is Brezhnev's cute little way of telling us how things really are.

Ronald Reagan on Subsidies

This old fellow bought some corn, loaded it into his wagon and started off down the road to the town swamp. He told his neighbors he was going to catch the wild pigs in the swamp. Well, those pigs had been there for 50 years and nobody had ever caught them so his friends thought he had gone looney. Well, it wasn't many weeks before he came back to town and he had the pigs.

How did he do it? Well, he began by putting corn out and gradually he built a fence back of the corn. Pretty soon, he extended it onto two sides and by this time the pigs were eating together. He finally put the final side in and soon had the pigs eating out of his hand . . . and he owned them.

Well, once government starts giving handouts and you take them, they own you and that is what has happened to the fourth of the farmers in the U.S. who have been subsidized.

Pastor Bailey Heads Boney's Campaign Race

Dale Bailey, associate pastor of Covenant Presbyterian church, has been named Lemon Grove area chairman for Stan Boney's campaign for 2nd district supervisor — a post once held by his father.

Pastor Bailey, former youth minister with the Skyline Wesleyan church in Lemon Grove, has a strong following among churchgoing youth in the area.

Boney is said to be running a vigorous race for supervisor and a minipoll taken in Lemon Grove had Boney second in popularity.

OTD Parade on TV

Lemon Grove will be treated to a television first this Saturday and Sunday. Those two days local residents and everyone else subscribing to the Mission Cable system will be able to view the "Old Time Days" parade on TV.

Cable 2 will video tape the entire parade Saturday morning and present it from 7 to 9 p.m. that evening.

The taped broadcast will be repeated Sunday from 5 to 7 p.m.

L.G. Teenager Denies Auto Bomb Charge

Vicent Edward Broesch, 19, of 1631 Woodrow ave., Lemon Grove, pleaded innocent Tuesday in Superior Court to two counts of attempting to blow up cars.

Broesch was charged with possessing an explosive device with intent to damage property of others, according to Dep. Dist. Attorney Dan Horwick.

One of of the cars was said to have been owned by James Finch, a vice principal at Mt. Miguel High School. Broesch is accused of placing a pipe bomb under Finch's car at his home on May 18, 1975.

Another car was damaged by a similar bomb. Broesch reportedly had a disagreement with Finch regarding Broesch's work as a photographer in covering basketball games.

His trial has been set for May 20.

Earlier, Broesch's bail had been raised from $2,000 to $15,000 after it was reported that Broesch had been in possession of .22 caliber ammunition when taken into custody along the route of a motorcade for Japan's Emperor Hirohito in San Diego last year.

Tax Bills Win 2 Days Grace

Owners of real estate who have not yet paid the second installment of their 1975-76 secured tax will have until April 12 to pay without delinquent penalties and costs, according to County Tax Collector James E. Jones.

The deadline is two days later than usual because April 10 falls on Saturday this year.

A 6 per cent deliquent penalty and $3 for costs will be applied to payments postmarked or paid after April 12.

Payments may be made at the cashiers' windows in Room 162, 1600 Pacific Highway, 8 to 5 Mondays through Fridays. The penalty is a straight 6 per cent of the total installment and is not an annual percentage rate as some taxpayers assume, Jones said.

The tax collector cautioned property owners not to confuse the deadline for paying property taxes with the final date for filing federal and state income tax returns.

Stubs for second installment payments were attached to tax bills mailed in September and October. Unless their taxes are paid by a lending agency, property owners who want to pay their taxes and have not received a tax bill should call the collector's office at 236-3121 and request a duplicate.

Jones reminded property owners that they are not excused from paying either taxes or penalties because they did not receive a tax bill.

Chamber Reelects Guest; Asks VLM Election Poll

Bob Guest, manager of Crocker National Bank was re-elected as president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce last week at the board of directors annual meeting.

Dr. Griffith Clark, local veterinarian, was elected vice president, Wally Knudson, a realtor, secretary and Carl Lacki, BoA manager, treasurer.

A request to Assemblyman Peter Chacon regarding the inventory tax brought a response by letter that nothing could be done to ease the tax burden this year.

Cost of insurance rose dramatically for the chamber after its office was flooded earlier this year. Board member Louise Dail, operator of Dail Insurance Co., offered to provide coverage for one year without charge.

Attorney Jim Dorman recounted the action which deferred Lemon Grove's vote on incorporation. The postponement came after the City of La Mesa protested the proposed booundaries in the Vista La Mesa area. The board agreed to ask the County Board of Supervisors to poll the area protested by La Mesa to ascertain whether the residents preferred annexation to La Mesa or participation in Lemon Grove's incorporation election. Fire protection would be provided during the interim, it was said. The incorporation boundaries should be set at the outcome of the poll, it was suggested.

It was reported that County Zoning had sent the second notice to the owner of the lumber that still remains stacked along the railway right of way at North and Main streets. His request for variance had been denied, earlier this year. Zoning said there would be a third notice before court action would commence.

Meeting Date Changed

The April meeting date for the County of San Diego's Commission on the Status of Women has been changed due to the Easter holiday. The Commission was scheduled to meet April 14 but that meeting date has been moved back to April 7.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Room 358A of the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway in San Diego.

At the meeting Commissioners will discuss the growing problem of rape in the county. Interested persons are invited to attend.

Arrests Continue On Thursday Car Cruise Lawbreakers

The Thursday Night Car Cruise crowd is diminishing, according to Sheriff's Lt. G. Dodson of the sheriff's Lemon Grove office.

The turnout last week along Lemon Grove's Broadway was estimated at about 75 per cent of the overage turnout. Approximately 100 vehicles were on the "show off" line.

Since last fall, custom car owners have congregated on the parking strips on each side of Broadway from Kempf to Main streets.

At first the cruises were well controlled—even to cleaning up litter that they may have dropped. Since the first of the year, unorganized groups have taken over the parking area, drinking and leaving debris.

Residents complained and the sheriff ordered deputies to patrol the area in stronger force.

One night early this month, 54 arrests were reported. Last week, there were 11 arrests and 9 traffic citations. Of the 11, 7 were adults and 4 were juveniles. Charges ranged from that of allowing an unlicensed, unleashed dog to run loose to that of felony possession of marijuana. Drugs and alcohol accounted for a majority of the arrests.

Litter Charge

There was one charge of littering although an act charged as littering does not have the support of deputy district attorneys in the El Cajon Municipal Court District through which complaints must clear. It usually happens when beer drinking cruise buffs use their empty beer cans because most business firms with public toilets are closed. Officers charge such miscreants with littering rather than indecent exposure. E.C. DA's have recently refused to issue on the charge, records show.

Cruises here peak about 9 and thin out about 11 p.m.

In San Diego, police have threatened to block streets if cruisers invade the city. In Lemon Grove, Broadway parking strips are privately owned by the owners of property they front. The result is that officers are under some restraints not present where the property is publicly owned.

Campership Fund Drive Begins In S.D. County

The Community Campership Council has announced the start of its annual fund raising drive for this summer to provide a projected 2500 camperships to San Diego area youths from low-income families.

The Council was organized in 1969 to provide summer camp assistance to those who could not afford to pay regular camp fees to agencies such as the Boy Scouts, the YMCA and the Camp Fire Girls. The Council operates as an intermediary, making arrangements for underprivileged children between the ages of six and thirteen who are recommended to the Council by various youth agencies throughout the county.

Youths are recommended who would benefit from a summer camp experience but whose parents cannot afford the fee to send the youth to camp. Parents are asked to pay as much of the normal fee as is possible and the Council makes up the difference. An estimated $80-100,000 will be needed to send the projected 2500 youths to camp this summer.

All camps in the County participate in the program in varying degrees. Private camps will accept Council recommended youths if their reservations are not filled for the summer. Other camps will always have a certain number of youths recommended by the Council.

Funds to the Council are donated by groups, organizations and individual contributors. Additionally funds are drawn from the County's Recreation Support Program.

The Primary Fund Raising Campaign for the Campership Council runs through May with most campership grants being awarded by the first part of June.

Volunteers Needed For High School Aid Programs

Mt. Miguel High School will initiate a Communty Volunteer Program similar to programs in many elementary schools. The director of the project, Mrs. Pauline Forman, an English teacher at Mt. Miguel, says it is an opportunity for adults to help the school in many ways.

Volunteers will gain satisfaction from helping students individually and in small groups in areas such as math and English, and they will gain an awareness and understanding of the problems that face many students. Volunteers can relieve teachers of many time-consuming nonprofessional chores to give the teachers more time to devote to teaching.

Nationwide, there are 2.5 million school volunteers and growing. There are not as many programs in the high schools as there are in the elementary schools, and it is hoped that Mt. Miguel's program can be a model for other secondary schools.

At Mt. Miguel, people with a variety of skills are sought, such as economics, typing, helping teachers grade papers and assisting in the attendance office.

Volunteers should have at least three hours a week available and will supply their own transportation.

Interested adults should call the school office 463-5551.

'Fare Tennis' May End Waiting Game at Helix

The Grossmont Union High School District has tentatively approved a new system of pay-tennis for Helix High School. Final approval is now up to the La Mesa City Council.

Under the new experimental system, called Fare Tennis, users of the tennis courts will pay 50 cents an hour for use of the courts. A meter is hooked up to the tennis net which remains in a lowered position until a player inserts 50 cents into the meter. The net then cranks itself into the regulation playing position. When the time on the meter expires, the post on the net telescopes, lowering the net. Play is resumed when more coins are inserted into the meter. The system is intended to alleviate the common problem of court congestion, as well as to generate funds to maintain the courts.

System in Operation

The system is presently being tested at Collier Park in San Diego. So far there have been no problems with the system. The court that has been supplied with the system is in use approximately 55 per cent of the time and draws approximately $20 a week in revenue.

Skip Fenn of the La Mesa Department of Recreation is enthusiastic about the new system. "We've encountered no real opposition to fare tennis. The players seem to feel that as long as the money is used for the upkeep of the courts 50 cents is a relatively cheap price to pay. It's better than putting the burden on the taxpayer."

50-50 Revenue Sharing

The nets and the system would be maintained by the manufacturer. Helix High School administration will be provided with a number of keys so that the instructional program will not be impaired. The system will be on a 50-50 revenue sharing basis which will pay for the upkeep and expansion of the other courts.

If the new fare tennis system passes through the La Mesa City Council it would take another 30 days to put the system into full operation. The system would then be subject to a 90-day trial period by the council and the school district before being given permanent status at the school and considered for other schools within the Grossmont Union High School District.

Japanese Star Organist Booked for Grove Concert

Southland Music Center, 3459 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, will present brilliant young organist, Maria Kumagai in Concert on Saturday, April 10th at 8 p.m.

Maria Kumagai was born in Tokyo, Japan. She first felt an affinity for music when she was seven but was full grown with some years of formal piano study behind her when she first decided to learn the art of the theatre organ, an idiom unknown in her native land. Maria soon learned that if she was to know the theatre organ she would have to go where there was a profusion of them — the U.S.A.

It was a big step but Maria was determined. Speaking almost no English but with high hopes, she arrived at Los Angeles a few days before Christmas in 1969. Soon after arriving, Maria was introduced to the famed organist Bill Thomson. Bill quickly recognized Maria's rare talent and clearly defined determination. He suggested parallel classical organ instruction with Richard Purvis, known the world over for his recitals and compositions.

The rest is a good, old success story with concerts all over the United States resulting in standing ovations.

Tickets are available for the Southland Music concert by mail or phone, 463-0308. Seating is reserved and will not be guaranteed to those not having reservations. Tickets are $2.50.

Eat and Grow Younger

Selection, Not Income, Determines Whether Diet is Nutritious One

By Lelord Kordel

Number Twelve of a Series

Good nutrition is not a matter of income. Rather, it's a matter of selection. Proper foods actually cost less than many that are woefully lacking in nourishment. Many an expensively provisioned table is tragically poor in nutritional values because of poor selection and improper preparation.

Yet no mystery surrounds planned high protein diets.

The only basic dietary rule is simply this: Increase your daily protein intake to at least 150 to 165 grams (more if you've been ill, are planning a reducing diet or indulge in strenuous physical activities); limit the starches and sugars to natural carbohydrates found in vitamin-and-mineral-rich fruits, vegetables, honey, unrefined raw sugar or molasses, whole grains and seed cereals.

The following charts give you a rule-of-thumb guide as to the adequacy or inadequacy of each day's meals from the standpoint of how many grams of protein are consumed.

First, I shall list the animal proteins, that is, the high grade or complete proteins; then the incomplete or vegetable proteins. At least 50 to 75 per cent of your total daily protein consumption should be selected from animal proteins. The remainder of your daily protein intake may come from vegetable sources.

Animal Proteins

	Protein Grams
1 Cup beef broth	4
4 Ozs. lean beef (rib, rump, pot roast)	22
4 Ozs. beefsteak	23

1 Tbsp gelatin	8
1 Tbsp. honey	2

Vegetable Sources

The next chart lists the vegetable sources providing the highest number of protein grams per serving. By this I do not intend to imply that no other vegetable sources are worth considering. Since these vegetable proteins are not high grade, or "complete," no more than 25 per cent of your daily protein intake should be chosen from this list:

'Biggest Park' Meeting Called for Tuesday Night

A public meeting to discuss development of the largest regional park in the County will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Lewis Junior High School, 5170 Greenbrier ave., in San Diego.

The City and County of San Diego are sharing responsibility for planning and development of the 6,000 acre Lake Murray, Cowles and Fortuna Mountain Regional Park. Because of its size, the park is considered to be one of the largest of its kind in the nation.

The preliminary master plan for the park will be presented at the meeting and the public is urged to attend to discuss current and future recreational requirements for the regional park.

Current plans call for eventual development of bicycle, horse and hiking trails throughout the 35 square mile area. Plans also call for nature study areas, camping and picnic areas, a pistol-rifle range, an archery range, an amphitheatre, and fishing and boating facilities.

A master plan technical advisory committee representing the City and County of San Diego, along with advice from City and County staff, have assisted the consultant in development of the preliminary master plan.

Tax Reduced on Telephone Service

You're not paying as much federal excise tax on your telephone service as you were a year ago and by 1982, there'll be no tax at all.

For the third successive year, the federal tax has been cut by one per cent, or from seven to six per cent.

The excise tax was enacted during World War I as a temporary measure and after being repealed following WWI, it was reinstituted during the Depression.

The tax had been as high as 25 per cent on long distance calls and stood at 10 per cent from early 1966 to 1972.

That year the decision was made to reduce the tax at the rate of one per cent a year until 1982 when it'll be phased out entirely.

VFW Seeks Second Site for Dances

Officials of the VFW Post 2082 are hoping another post or lodge in the area will start another local teen dance. The dances held at the Lemon Grove Post have become so popular that at Friday's affair some youths were turned away at the door due to capacity crowds.

Dance committeeman Dick Bales said he would aid an organization in getting another dance program rolling in the area. He may be reached at 461-5877 or 464-8844.

The next dance will be April 30 from 7 to 11 p.m. at the Hall, 2882 Imperial. Youths must be ages 14 through 17 and ID's are required.

March dance contest winners were Debbie Chance, who won a gift certificate at Carmel Corn, College Grove; Rickey Mahos, carload pass to Ace Drive-in; and Melisa Soldstein, $25 savings bond.

The Teen Dance Committee meets tonight at 7 at the Hall.

Air Pollution Officers Given Power to Arrest

The San Diego County Board of Supervisors have vested authority to arrest in the officers of S.D. County Air Pollution Control District, it was announced this week.

Tickets, similar to traffic tickets, will be issued to people in violation of air pollution laws.

Arrests would be made only if violators refuse to sign the on-the-spot tickets.

William Williams, AP control officer, said the new authority will speed up court pollution control.

HOME-COOKED This Week's RECIPE

Salute the All-American Nut

Move over, Freedom Train, Bicentennial Minutes, etc. Yet another aspect of Americana has jumped on the bicentennial bandwagon. A food manufacturer has just proclaimed the peanut the all-American nut, (naturally, in honor of our nation's upcoming 200th birthday). To celebrate "America's favorite nibble," the firm has furnished a complete booklet of peanut recipes with exotic 18th century names from "Federalist Fingers" to "Surprise Attack Dressing."

The peanut in the booklet finds its way into hors d'oeuvres, vegetables and salads and main dishes, but there are some more traditional uses in print, such as "Betsy Ross' Boyfriend Cookies."

BETSY ROSS' BOYFRIEND COOKIES

1 cup butter or margarine
1⅓ cups granulated sugar
1⅓ cups firmly packed light brown sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
1½ cups all purpose flour
1 tsp. baking soda
3 cups quick cook oats
1½ cups chopped peanuts
1 package (6 oz.) semi-sweet chocolate bits

Allow butter or margarine to warm to room temperature. In large mixing bowl cream butter and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla. Beat until fluffy. Sift flour with soda into a large bowl, add oats and toss to coat oats with flour. Add to first mixture a cup at a time until completely mixed. Stir in peanuts and chocolate bits. Drop from teaspoon onto greased cookie sheet. Bake in preheated 375°F oven 10 to 12 minutes. Makes six dozen.

CARLSBAD — Golf's newest triumvirate — Jack Nicklaus, Johnny Miller and Hale Irwin — head the 23 qualifiers in the 24th annual MONY (Mutual of New York) Tournament of Champions, announced tournament chairman Allard Roen.

The prestigious event, rated by most top pros as the fourth most important tournament in the country, will be conducted April 15-18 at the beautiful La Costa Country Club.

Only winners of major tournaments since the last MONY Tournament of Champions are eligible to compete.

Geiberger Qualifies

Jaws Accept Bid In Aloha Festival

The San Diego Jaws and New York Cosmos have each accepted an invitation to play in the Aloha Soccer Festival in Honolulu Wednesday.

Jaws General Manager Paul Deese and Cosmos' President Clive Toy confirmed that their teams will participate in the double-header soccer game — the first ever in Hawaii.

The Aloha Festival, which is expected to draw 50,000 fans to the Honolulu Stadium, will feature the Jaws against the Hawaiian All-Stars and the Cosmos and Pele facing the Japanese National Team.

"Ticket sales have been fantastic. It's the first opportunity for most Hawaiians to see the world's greatest soccer player — Pele," Deese said.

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth . . . and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

Free Sneak-Preview Saturday on Cajon Speedway Schedule

It's sneak preview time at Cajon Speedway Saturday afternoon when more than half the number of super stock cars scheduled to compete this season will be tested in a special open house practice session.

Trial runs on the three-eighths of a mile banked asphalt oval will be made from 1 to 4 p.m. Spectators can anticipate some impromptu races, too.

Cajon Speedway promoter Earle Brucker Jr. said there would be no admission charge and that fans will be able to visit with their favorites following the three-hour practice.

Many new cars and a number of new drivers are expected to see action in 1976. The trend is to Camaro bodies but a few Challengers will be making their first appearances.

"Two cars are being prepared for women drivers who wish to compete against the men," said Brucker. "They must have been reading about Arlene Hiss."

Official Opening

The big season at Cajon will receive the official green flag Saturday night, April 10, when the super stocks begin their 16th campaign. Brucker said that the California Racing Association sprint cars have been scheduled for six dates and that plans will be announced later for an automotive thrill show.

Each Saturday night, qualifying will be set for 6:30 p.m. with a trophy dash ready for 8 p.m. The programs will consist of a dash, four heats, Band A semimains and a 40-lap feature.

Race fans can reach the track by taking the Bradley St. exit off State 67 and going two blocks west or by traveling north on Johnson st. from El Cajon or Parkway Plaza.

Hockey, Napier Sign With Jaws

Two long awaited English soccer players have joined the San Diego Jaws professional soccer club, General Manager Paul Deese said.

One, Trevor Hockey is one of the most controversial Jaws players to sign so far. Hockey, according to Jaws coach Derek Trevis ". . . is a tiger — a real wild man out on the soccer field. He is hard, physical and gritty. Trevor Hockey should fit into our aggressive team image very well. He is a born leader who will get everyone else in the club running . . . fighting . . . and playing their best."

Hockey, 5'5", 160 lbs., has had a long soccer career in England. A player for the Welsh National Team, Trevor Hockey has over 500 league games' worth of experience while playing for many of England's First Division teams. Hockey was due to arrive in time for Wednesday night's game with the New York Cosmos and Pele, but was held up in England because of visa troubles.

John Napier, the second player to arrive from foreign shores will help strengthen the Jaws' defense, Deese said. A defender with a long soccer career in England (400 games), 6'2", 175 lbs., Napier was his Division's 1962 and 1966 Player of the Year.

The San Diego Friars are sponsoring a World Team Tennis club tournament for tennis clubs throughout San Diego.

The event will be held April 10 and 11 at the River Valley Tennis Club in Mission Valley.

Following the WTT format, each team will have three men and three women players and a match will consist of men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles. A player may not participate in more than two sets.

Game scoring will follow the "no-ad" rules; 1-2-3-game and match scoring will be on a cumulative game basis.

The tournament will have a maximum draw of 32 teams but more than one team may enter from any individual club. Entry fee is $21 per team and players must be 19 and over.

Entries should be submitted to the Friars at 1660 Hotel Circle North, San Diego 92108.

Telephone contact is Norma Hake at 298-9855.

Friars Sign 2 Amitrajs

Vijay Amritraj, who ranked fourth in World Team Tennis singles competition last year, has signed a San Diego Friars contract for the 1976 season.

The Friars, who earlier signed Rod Laver, now have what team president Allan Kingston believes to be the strongest male lineup in the league.

"No other team can match San Diego's Laver-Amritraj combination," Kingston said.

In the WTT match format, players are limited to a total of two sets competition in singles, doubles or mixed doubles. "With Laver and Amritraj strong in both singles and doubles, it gives us tremendous versatility throughout our lineup," Kingston said.

19 For 33

Amritraj, 22, won 19 of 33 WTT singles matches last year, a .532 percentage, and took 180 of 338 games played. Only Marty Riessen, Mark Cox and Tom Okker did any better.

So far this winter, in World Championship Tennis, his play has been even more impressive.

"Everybody agreed that Vijay would develop into one of the world's finest players, but he's done so sooner than most people believed possible," Kingston said.

The Friars also announced that Ashok Amritraj, 20, also had signed a San Diego contract. Ashok played briefly with the Friars last season as did a third brother, Anan, who will concentrate on the European tour this summer.

The Friars begin their season May 4 in the Sports Arena against the world champion Pittsburgh Triangles — whose team includes Evonne Goolagong, Mark Cox and Vitas Gerulaitis. Ilie Nastase makes his first WTT appearance with Hawaii on May 7 against the Friars in the Sports Arena.

Season tickets for all 20 home matches are available for as low as $5 by writing the Friars at 1660 Hotel Circle North, San Diego 92108.

Aztecs Add 2 Grid Coaches

Claude Gilbert filled the vacancies on his San Diego State football coaching staff this week with the addition of Sid Hall and Al Hammerschmidt.

Hall, a former Aztec coach, returns from the pro ranks to the Aztecs while Hammerschmidt is elevated from a parttime Aztec coach to fulltime.

Hall coached at State for five seasons under Don Coryell. Sid was the Aztec's 1965-66 defensive backfield coach, and defensive co-ordinator in 1967-68.

He handled linebackers for the Oakland Raiders in 1969-70 for former State assistant John Madden. After two seasons he became defensive line coach under Tommy Prothro. The past three seasons he coached the defensive line for the St. Louis Cardinals under Don Coryell.

Hammerschmidt moves up to a fulltime Aztec coach after serving three seasons as a parttime assistant. He will take charge of the running backs as a fulltime assignment. Previously Hammer had been in charge of the outside linebackers. Hammerschmidt joins Donnie Rea, who earlier moved up from parttime to fulltime, on the Aztec staff.

Jackpot Rebuilding At Caliente Track

TIJUANA — Despite the fact its 5-10 reserve jackpot had been emptied the week before when John Worthey of San Diego won a record $138,936 in the handicapped contest, Agua Caliente enjoyed another $1 million dollar weekend — which reflects the continued interest of area fans in the Tijuana track.

This week's pool starts at $107,916.

Three persons selected six winners in the 5-10 sequence Saturday and collected major awards of $19,768 each. There were 104 tickets with five winning selections, each good for $190 consolation awards.

Sunday's 5-10 contest was more widely distributed with 12 tickets picking five winners and each worth $4,856.20 to the owners. Another 387 persons had tickets with four winners, good for $50 consolations.

Racing continues this weekend with a six furlong sprint being the April Fool's Day Purse on Saturday and the feature on Sunday being contested over the mile and one-sixteenth course and dedicated to the state of Texas.

PUC Holds Hearing on 'Lifeline' Utility Rates

Members of the public who want to express their views on what quantities of gas and electricity should be adopted as "lifeline" will be heard by the California Public Utilities Commission Wedneday in San Diego.

The hearing begins at 10 a.m. before PUC Examiner Parke Boneysteele. The session will be in Room B-109, State Building, 1350 Front st.

The PUC is calling for consumer testimony on what their basic, minimum needs are each month for gas and electricity.

Last year, the PUC temporarily adopted lifeline rates of 75 therms for gas and between 300 and 500 kilowatt hours for electricity, depending on climatic conditions.

These levels will remain in force until completion of hearing and final decision in the current investigation.

There are no age restrictions or other qualifications for PUC lifeline rates. All that is required is that consumers hold their consumption at or below the levels adopted.

Hearings on the investigation began last December.

A Look at Past Issues

Back Pages

A look at the pages of this newspaper twenty years ago reveals some of the interesting contrasts between then and now. This column highlights some of the items that appeared in this newspaper at this time two decades ago.

By Bruce Binkowski

Twenty years ago this week, well known Brookside resident Captain Robert Goodbody strongly urged that the unincorporated areas of Spring Valley, Brookside and Lemon Grove incorporate "for the purpose of lowering taxes and utilities to the level of San Diego City and to have a better chance for a larger water supply." The captain urged that the three communities incorporate into a sixth class city.

Goodbody urged that Spring Valley, Brookside and Lemon Grove incorporate before San Diego is "in our front yard." The remarks were made at a meeting of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce meeting the first week of April, 1956.

The Optimists Club officially set up a Lemon Grove-Spring Valley branch for meetings. A call was sent out for "civic minded men who are interested in boys," and dates for the initial meeting would be announced soon.

The Optimists objectives then, as they are now, were to 1. Develop Optimism as a philosophy of life; 2. Promote active interest in good government and civic affairs and 3. Encourage development of youth."

Eight year old Patty Corle won first in her division in the National Open Baton Twirling Contest which was held in New Mexico. The Lemon Grove youngster was the holder of the San Diego County Championship in 1956 and the recipient of many trophies.

Bike Moto-X's Large Turnout Winners Listed

The winners list was released this week by the Rancho San Diego Bicycle Motocross (BMX) club for its last race held March 21 in Rancho San Diego.

The list, according to publicity man Lou Szuch, was delayed due to the overwhelming (almost 300) number of entries in the fledgling Spring Valley sport.

Szuch credits Jonnie Wimberly's scoring abilities for the smooth running of the races held twice a month at the track which is maintained by the riders and parents. It's located off Rt. 94, 1/2 mile west of Cottonwood Golf Course.

Winners of the March 21 races, listed in order of finish and ranked in age groups are:

6 and under — David Lively, Tim Burns, Steve Thompson

7 — Jeffrey Schildmeyer, Keith Becker, Shane Wimberly

8 — Jerry Dominick, Danny Stover, Jere Pennock

9 — Ron Gilbert, Mark Starman, James Pennock

The San Diego County Board of Supervisors is not meeting in regular session this week.

Four of the five Board members are attending a legislative conference sponsored by the National Assn. of Counties (NACo) in Washington.

Lee Taylor, Board chairman; and Supervisors Jack Walsh and Dick Brown are scheduled to attend the conference.

Supervisor Bates is a member of the NACo Home Rule/Regional Steering Committee. Supervisor Walsh is chairman of NACo's Health and Education Committee and a member of the organization's Urban Affairs Committee.

The next regular scheduled Board meeting is Tuesday.

Last-Minute Returns

With the April 15 income tax deadline two weeks away, the Franchise Tax Board is preparing for the usual flood of returns.

"More than half of the expected eight million State tax returns have been received but we are anticipating about a million a week between now and the fifteenth," Executive Officer Martin Huff said.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Pack them peanut butter sandwiches and pack up the car, guys and gals, it's time for the rootin' tootin' shootin' of irons and woods at the ol' range at La Costa.

The MONY Tournament of Champions is coming our way April 15 through the 18th.

And what days you'll have. Great golf shots jump off the blades of truly great golfers and excitement around the fairways is as common as clover.

Jack Nicklaus, who won the event four times, is a 4 to 1 odds maker's choice to wear the MONY TofC crown a fifth time. Johnny Miller is a 6-1 shot, Tom Watson and defendinng champion Al Geiberger are rated at 7-1 while Hale Irwin comes up at 8-1, along with Tom Weiskopf, Billy Casper and Gene Littler.

But what do odds makers know of grit luck and the hand of fate. Look how Lady Luck smiled and frowned at the two tigers fighting for the top spot last year down to the last stretch of fairway.

Al Geiberger, pumping up his low blood sugar condition with peanut butter sandwiches throughout the tournament, was in front and almost untouchable when his second shot flew up to the 18th green, just 25 feet from the pin.

If he got down in two, he'd win the MONY TofC title outright. The TV world drew sharply its breath when Al putted way too short and missed the second for a three-putt green.

Gary Player had his chance. But his second shot went into the bunker and chipped out and two-putted for a tie.

Back to the 15th went the TV crews, Gary Player and Al Geiberger with half of his daily peanut butter sandwich. He ate it in the golf cart on the way back to combat.

Al got to eating peanut butter sandwiches back in 1965 when Arnie's Army knocked him over on the way to a feed station during a tournament.

As mentioned, he suffers from low blood sugar and needs some kind of nourishment during a round of competitive golf. Anything would do, but most sandwich fillers, egg, tuna or lunch meat, would spoil in the sun. Peanut butter was a natural choice.

"I used to make them or my wife would pack one up at home," he grinned. "But after the word went out, people began bringing me sandwiches in almost every tournament. Everytime I looked the least bit tired somebody would stick a peanut buttter sandwich in my face.

"The funny thing is, I still like them and I still eat them."

The 15th hole at La Costa is a par four, 390 yard dogleg to an elevated green guarded by bunkers in front, on the side, and in the back.

Well fortified with peanut butter smackings, Al fired his tee shot down the right side and out of trouble. Player, who happened to be peanut butterless, muffed his driver and landed behind the giant eucalyptus tree guarding the left hand approach to the green.

Geiberger thought he had Player because nothing short of a great golf shot could get him in putting distance.

Player hit a great golf shot. He hooked his ball around the tree and up to the pin, just 12 feet away. He had a real shot at a possible winning birdie.

Geiberger rammed an eight iron right at the flag and landed inside Player's line.

Gary putted right at the cup, but the ball rolled over the corner and refused to fall in.

Geiberger won the thing when his ball dropped in dead center.

You pays your money and takes your chances, but when it's golf in the MONY Tournament of Champions, a match of players who have had to win at least one championship tourney in the past 12 months to qualify, action is the name of the contest from beginning to playoff.

As might be expected, Gary Player hates playoffs. On the record, Gary is 3-11 in playoffs over the years, and doesn't think they mean that much.

"I consider myself to have tied Mr. Geiberger for the title," he smiled to newsmen last spring. And who can blame him.

As for Geiberger. Give him a peanut butter sandwich and he'll take on anybody.

New Officials For Breakers Think Champs

Quietly, the San Diego Breakers of the International Volleyball Association are girding for the second season.

With relatively little fanfare, the Breakers have (1) restructured from top to bottom; (2) beefed up its squad; and, (3) zeroed in on bringing San Diego its initial professional championship in any sport.

While he still retains a strong financial interest in the Breakers, and an equally strong interest in the success of the IVA, Berry Gordy has relinquished the reins of ownership to a San Diego based group to simplify operation of the Club.

As part of his agreement, however, he has requested the services of Sandy Geuss, popular general manager of the Breakers during the maiden season. Geuss will become vice presient of Gordy's Motown Industries based in Los Angeles. His replacement will be announced.

Dick Templeman, former general manager of the Los Angeles Stars, has been named to the post of Operations Director.

Ans Dilley, a former San Diego Q's administrator, has been named Media Relations Director for the San Diego Breakers. Both appointments take place immediately.

Breakers coach, Rudy Suwara, is burning the midnight oil to prepare the club for the up-coming draft set for Saturday, April 10 at the League offices in Los Angeles.

"Besides some excellent college talent," said Suwara, "we have been talking with several of the other IVA clubs about deals that would improve our club."

Oakland A's Uncork Baseball In Wednesday Pre-season Tilt

San Diego baseball fans will get a chance to see what might be the most attractive single game to be played in San Diego Stadium this season next Wednesday when the Padres host the Oakland A's in the final exhibition game of the pre-season period.

The Padres and A's will clash at 7 p.m. in the first exhibition contest to be played in San Diego since the club's inaugural 1969 campaign. In that year, the Padres split a doubleheader with the old Seattle Pilots and April 6, winning the first game 8-2 and dropping the nightcap, 4-3. The clubs had originally been scheduled for single games on April 5 and 6, but a rain-out on the 5th set up the double bill.

Oakland field manager Chuck Tanner may be new, but his cast of characters is essentially the same as the one which took the A's to their fifth consecutive AL Western Division title in 1975. In fact, there are still plenty of names around from the Oakland clubs which won three straight World Series crowns in 1972-73-74.

Vida Blue, Too

For starters, there are such front-line pitchers as Vida Blue, Ken Holtzman and Rollie Fingers who last season combined for 50 victories plus 25 saves. That accounted for all but 23 of the A's total wins. Blue, of course, was the staff leader with a 22-11 mark and Holtzman was 18-14 while Fingers was 10-6 with 24 saves out of the bullpen.

As for power, the A's can draw heavily on third baseman Sal Bando as well as outfielder Reggie Jackson to say nothing of catcher Gene Tenace or rising young star outfielder Claudell Washington.

One of the premier power hitters in the American League over the past several seasons, Jackson slumped a little in average with only a .253 mark last year, but he more than made up for that dip by driving in 104 runs and slugging 36 home runs and 39 doubles. His slugging percentage of .511 was one of the top figures in the American League.

Bando, too, suffered through an off-season average wise as he was only .230, but he still had enough timely hits to contribute 78 RBI. Meanwhile Tenace hit for a .255 overage with 87 RBI, but the season really belonged to 21-year-old Claudell Washington. The young speedster (no relation to the A's former celebrated "designated runner" Herb Washington) hit for a fine .308, chipped in 77 RBI's and was second in the American League in stolen bases with 40.

Chargers Play Rams Sunday -In N. County Tennis Match

The San Diego Chargers play the Los Angeles Rams Sunday!

The sport: Tennis.

Dan Fouts, Jessie Freitas, Doug Wilkerson and Bill Walsh of the Chargers will face James Harris, Elijah Pitts, John Cappelletti and George Menefee of the Rams.

The matches will be held at Sea Bluff Beach and Racquet Club and will start at noon. The public is invited and there is no charge.

In addition to the Chargers-Rams matches, members of the San Diego press will play Los Angeles media.

Scoring will be on the World Team Tennis format with the winner determined on the total games won by each team.

There will be both singles and doubles competition as well as mixed doubles play.

The Charger-Ram matchups are natural. Walsh, newly appointed Charger offensive coach, will take on Pitts — former Green Bay great — who holds a similar coaching assignment with the Rams.

Quarterbacks Fouts or Freitas will battle Harris, the Ram quarterback. Wilkerson will face Menefee and Cappelletti goes against either Fouts or Freitas, depending on which plays Harris.

Sea Bluff is in Leucadia and may be reached by taking highway 5 to the La Costa exit and going west to Pacific Coast Highway.

Doubleheader Race

A doubleheader stock car program has been scheduled on both the quarter and half mile ovals Sunday at South Bay Park Speedway.

Qualifying rounds will start at 12:30 with the first race at 2:30 p.m.

County Seeks LG Handicapped Children for Special Education

There are federal funds available to help handicapped preschoolers with their education.

Nine million dollars worth, according to the County Department of Education which is seeking out recipients for the benefits. According County Superintendent of Schools M. Ted Dixon, the drive, called "Project Search," aims at locating handicapped children not presently being educated through public school programs. One area to which "Project Search" efforts are being directed is Lemon Grove.

Local Project

The results of the drive will determine the amount of funds local school districts may receive through new federal legislation (Public Law 93-380) which has provided California with $9 million to educate the unserved handicapped children. Plans to place youngsters in professionally supervised programs will be determined by June 1, Dixon said.

During "Project Search," parents, physicians, teachers and the public are urged to phone 278-6400 should they know of such a child. Children with both physical and mental handicaps are eligible for the special education. Children with brain damage, motor impairments or learning disabilities would qualify, as would those who are blind, deaf, retarded or autistic.

10% Handicapped

"The United States Office of Education estimates that approximately 10 per cent of all school children are handicapped and in need of special services," Dixon said. "San Diego is assuming state leadership in underetaking Project Search — a way to actively seek out and serve our country's handicapped children."

Programs now serving handicapped children are found in Chula Vista, El Cajon, Vista, Oceanside, Poway, Escondido, Santee and the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

A related specially funded program is already under way. Called "Project Hope," it brings handicapped preschoolers together with a trained professional in the child's home.

ENDANGERED SPECIES — The utility pole, a monument to the 20th century is listed as an "endangered species" in the San Diego area. San Diego Gas and Electric Company resumes its program of converting overhead electric facilities to underground facilities today. The program was suspended in December because of adverse economic and financial conditions facing the company, according to SDG&E news bureau chief Carl Welti. Undergrounding has been an on-going project for the utility for 50 years, he said, most consistently since 1968. SDG&E has budgeted $6.35 million for the project this year. The only work scheduled for 1976 in this area, however, is near the new Rt. 94 Spring St. interchange, Welti said.

Mike Bollman Reveals Personal Tax Returns

Mike Bollman, candidate for State Assembly in the 77th District, distributed to the media this week his 1975 federal and state income tax returns as part of a complete financial disclosure, and has called upon the other candidates in the race to follow his lead.

"At the time I announced my candidacy for the Assembly, I promised to make a complete personal financial disclosure, including my income tax returns. I have now kept that promise and it is my intention to conduct the remainder of my campaign in the same manner," he said.

"I believe that all people aspiring to full-time positions of public trust should make this information public and I therefore urge all of the other candidates in this race to follow my lead," Bollman said.

Release of the income tax returns are completely voluntary and neither state nor federal law requires a candidate to do so. Bollman is the only candidate in the 77th District to make his income tax returns public to date.

Bollman paid $9,284 in taxes for 1975, including $7,576 in federal income taxes, and $1,708 in State of California income taxes on a gross income of $40,483. Bollman's financial statement shows a net worth of $169,010. Bollman was the Republican 77th District primary winner in 1974.

Vaccination, License Clinic Now Operating

Low-cost vaccination and licensing clinics, sponsored by the S.D. County Animal Control, are offered weekdays at various locations throughout the county, according to James Gilshian, Animal Control Officer.

The county is a declared rabies area and state law requires that all dogs in San Diego more than five months old must be licensed and vaccinated, he said.

The clinics are available for owners of dogs which have never been vaccinated for rabies or need re-vaccination for license renewal.

Although the non-penalty period is past and a $2 late charge is now made, the clinics are still available.

Dog owners in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area may contact Animal Control at 263-7741.

The license fee for a male or spayed female is $6 for one year or $10 for two years. Rates for unspayed females are $12 for one year and $20 for two years. The vaccination fee is $2.

Poxless World

So successful has been the eradication program, it is estimated there are less than 20 cases of small pox anywhere in the world.

State Program to Provide 10,000 Jobs Says Lawmaker

SACRAMENTO — Legislation expected to generate up to $100 million for small business development, creating as many as 10,000 new private sector jobs, has been introduced by Assemblyman Tom Suitt.

The measure, which has the support of the Brown Administration, was unveiled at a Capitol news conference. Attending were Suitt, who will be the State Assembly author; State Senator George Zenovich (D-Fresno), who will manage the legislation in the upper house; and Donald E. Burns, Secretary of the State's Business and Transportation Agency.

Suitt explained the program is designed to encourage banks to give expansion loans to businessmen who otherwise would be unable to get financing. It would appropriate $3 million in state funds, which would be matched by banks and businesses, raising the total "loss reserve fund" to $9 million.

$100 Million in Loans

"With this fund cushioning the investment risk of the banks, we estimate there will be an additional $100 million available in loans to small and medium-sized businesses.

"Availability of this new expansion capital will translate into an estimated 5,000-10,000 job slots in businesses throughout the State," Suitt said.

Suitt said the proposed state system, unlike the federal government's Small Business Administration, will be cost-efficient.

"We'll only need about a half-dozen employees for administration. Since banks will be able to make loans immediately upon approval, costly bureaucratic delays and other overhead expenses will be eliminated," he said.

Self-Supporting

Suitt said the safeguards built into the program will permit a business stimulant at virtually no threat to the taxpayers' pocketbooks.

"We're not talking about business tax breaks that have to be picked up by the general public. The State's investment will not exceed five percent of the loans, which will be more than repaid by revenues collected through increased employment.

"Businesses still will pay normal bank rates for the capital, but some sound ventures that presently may be unable to grow due to a 'tight money' economy will stand an improved chance of success," Suitt explained.

He described the proposal as "the least expensive way the State can help provide desirable, job-creating incentives for those smaller and independent enterprises lacking the financial resources of major corporations."

Suitt said that with one million Californians looking for work, and with one family out of five suffering a job layoff in the past year, the November 1 task facing state government is to assault the stubbornly high unemployment rate.

"This legislation will be a breath of fresh air for the depressed business climate in California. Business means jobs and jobs mean people," Suitt concluded.

Grossmont Hosp. Wins 2 Yr. Accreditation

Grossmont Hospital has received a two year accreditation from the California Medical Association for its Continuing Medical Education Category I programs, which require the formal identification of patient needs, the statement of the program objective and the formal evaluation of the program in adherence to CMA standards.

Programs which qualify Grossmont Staff members for Category I designation include monthly meetings of Grand Rounds, Tumor Board, the Pediatric Case Conference and the Neuroradiology Conference. During the past year physicians were able to attend basic and advanced cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) courses, a pediatric seminar and a six-hour health seminar.

CHP Says Seat Belts on Buses 'Impractical'

California Highway Patrol Commissioner Glen Craig says seat belts on California school buses would be impractical and unnecessary.

The commissioner's remarks followed a recent study sponsored by the CHP and conducted by Southwest Research Institute analyzing all existing research in the area of seat belts, seat belt safety, practicality and financial considerations.

The cost of installing seat belts on California's 15,223 school buses was estimated at $43 million, or about $2830 a bus. "And then you would have seat belts added to, rather than designed for, that specific type of bus," the commissioner pointed out. "Belts might pose a tripping hazard, for example. And the installation requirements probably would eliminate the three-passenger - a - seat arrangements now used on some school buses."

No Practical Way

The commissioner continued by saying that "Even if belts were to be required on new buses only, there is no practical way to enforce use. Assurance that every youngster fastens his or her belt seems possible only with an attendant-monitor." The commissioner estimated the cost of carrying such an attendant on every school bus at $45 million annually.

The study shows that the use of seat belts on school buses would not improve California's safety record signficantly. "Statistics reveal that travel by school bus is four times safer than by passenger car," said Craig.

The study revealed that if any bus modification should be implemented, "it most logically should be in the area of seat redesign to eliminate exposed metal tubing and add to padding," said Craig.

The study concludes that the Highway Patrol program of annual school bus inspection, driver training and examinations and the rigid enforcing of all laws and regulations pertaining to school bus operation is, according to the commissioner, "doing the job."

Candidate Offers Night Meetings For Supervisors

Fletcher Diehl, of Santee, a 20-year veteran employee of the San Diego Gas and Electric Co., said that he had joined the race for supervisor of the 2nd district.

Diehl, a native San Diegan, said that he has worked predominantly in the 2nd district and over the years learned of people's problems with county government.

He promises to bring county government to the level of the people if elected and he favors law enforcement and fire protection for every citizen.

He is concerned by poor representation in the court system — a system he says that caters to felons and lawbreakers at the expense of the taxpayer.

An innovation he proposes would be night meetings for the supervisors.

SBA Offers $$$ Aid To Gas Stations

Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh announced recently that financial aid is available from the Small Business Administration for independent gas station owners who must comply with EPA requirements on unleaded gasoline, including vapor recovery systems.

Eligibility for these "economic injury loans" is limited to independently owned and operated small gasoline retailers and to small oil jobbers or distributors who own bulk plant facilities and who also market, own and operate retail outlets, Deddeh stated.

The Chula Vista lawmaker said that gasoline stations owned solely for investment purposes and not as marketing devices by the oil jobber or distributor are not eligible.

"I am glad to see a government bureaucracy helping the small business man to meet government imposed standards for cleaner air. Too often as is the case today, they throw endless roadblocks in his way," Deddeh said.

Car Thieves Consider Older Cars 'Easy Mark'

The most desirable car in California, according to auto thieves, is the Chevrolet Impala, vintage 1963 and older. During calendar 1975, 11½ per cent of the 99,891 passenger cars stolen in California were Impalas of those model years.

California Highway Patrol auto theft experts say those cars are "an easy mark." Chevrolets in the early 1960s had an ignition which, if left in a certain position, could be turned on without a key. Lots of people are still making the same mistake, leaving the car unlocked and the ignition in the 'rip-off' position."

Older Ford, Volkswagen, Chevrolet and pre-1970 Cadillac models dominate the upper brackets of the theft popularity chart.

Thieves apparently are reacting to the energy situation too. 37 per cent of the cars stolen last year were intermediate sized and 20 per cent were compacts, while only 32 per cent were either luxury or standard sized vehicles.

The statistics, which are provided to law enforcement agencies throughout California, are the product of the Highway Patrol's Vehicle Theft Information Service, a computerized compilation started last year as part of the Patrol's statewide vehicle theft reduction program.

Rate Rise Means Higher Gas Bills For Heavy Users

Natural gas rates for customers using over 75 therms a month will go up with the billing for April, it was announced last week.

The California Public Utilities Commission granted Southern California Gas authority to increase rates on March 23 to offset higher costs of gas it purchases from El Paso Natural Gas and Transwestern Pipeline companies.

At the same time, the PUC authorized $4.4 million in rate increases for San Diego Gas & Electric to offset the higher cost of gas it purchases from its supplier, So. Cal. Gas.

In keeping with the PUC's lifeline policy, which encourages energy conservation, none of the increase will be passed along to residential customers who use 75 therms or less of gas a month.

Increases for a residential usage of 100 therms a month will be about 34 cents for SDG&E customers.

The increase becomes effective today.

SD Taxpayers OK Strike Ballot

The San Diego Taxpayers Assn. has endorsed a proposed state constitutional amendment that would require a vote of the people for legislation giving public employees the right to strike, binding arbitration or agency shop provisions, according to Daniel Larsen, president.

A statewide campaign is underway to collect enough signatures to put the proposed amendment on the November general election ballot.

Approximately 500,000 signatures are needed, according to Mrs. Ruth Johnson of San Diego, statewide chairman of the Citizens Committee to Preserve Voter Rights.

She said that persons desiring to contact the committee may do so at P.O. Box 17402, San Diego 92117.

Non-Mechanics Can Save Dollars With Easy Do-It-Yourself Checks

Motorists can perform many minor preventive maintenance chores themselves that could save hundreds of dollars in repair bills, according to the Automobile Club of Southern California.

The club recommends that motorists study their owner's manuals thoroughly before undertaking do-it-yourself maintenance. The manuals offer information on the correct motor oil, tire pressure, tune-up specifications and other details.

The Auto Club lists some of the vital signs which are simple for the layman mechanic or the "non-mechanic" to inspect and service. They include:

• Checking the dipstick to assure the oil level is in the safe or full zone. If low, add a quart of oil or more as needed — but don't overfill. Dipsticks are marked with the correct high and low levels. Oil should be added until the level falls between those two lines. Be sure the engine is off before checking.

• Remove radiator cap to check the water/coolant level. The mixture should be a few inches from the top. But take caution while removing the cap. The radiator contents are hot enough to cause severe burns when the engine is at operating temperature. The engine should not only be turned off before checking, but it should also be cool. It's best to check when the vehicle has not been operated for at least 15 to 30 minutes.

• Check tire pressure and tread wear. Don't pump air just because a tire looks low. Use an air pressure gauge (sometimes built into service station air pumps) to check and adjust the pressure to the recommended pounds per square inch.

Excessive tread wear leaves a driver with less traction and more susceptible to flats. Manuals usually describe what causes certain tread wear patterns and whether they merit purchasing new tires or other service work.

• Check wiper blades and replace if worn. If blades leave streaks or skip spots, it's time to replace them. Most just slip on and off. No tools, other than a good pair of hands, are required.

• Blow horn to make sure it works.

• Inspect and clean headlamps, taillights and turn signals. Inspect warning lights by observing if both oil and temperature lights go on when ignition key is turned prior to stepping on accelerator.

Bobertz to Leave County Job Paying $45,000 Annually

Charles R. Bobertz, assistant chief administrative officer of the County of San Diego, will leave County service on June 9, he said this week.

Bobertz was appointed to the $45,492 a year position in July of 1968.

"I've thoroughly enjoyed my years of service with San Diego County. They have provided an exciting and productive career in local government," he said. "However, now with the completion of the reorganization initiated by the Board of Supervisors and Chief Administrative Officer Dave Speer, I am looking forward to pursuing opportunities in government and business which will allow me to spend more time with my family."

CAO Speer said, "The citizens of this County are losing an able and dedicated public servant and I am losing an unusually capable associate who is also a valued friend. The County administrators who must carry on after his departure will be acutely conscious of his absence."

Prior to being appointed to his present position, Bobertz served as a deputy administrative officer for S.D. County. He has also previously worked in the CAO's office and for the Health Department in San Diego.

Bobertz worked for Civil Defense, Oakland and for the Health Department in Tomkins County, New York. He has also held positions in the treasurer's office at Cornell University and for Civil Service for the State of New York. Bobertz also served as an infantry officer in the U. S. Army.

Military Spends Record Amount Here in 1975

The U. S. Navy and Marine Corps, have announced spending over the $2 billion mark last year in San Diego County. 1975 disbursements totaled $2,017,195,960 which represents a 1.7 per cent increase over the 1974 figure of $1,982,220,353.

The increase is largely due to a 30 per cent rise in retired military paychecks. The number of retired military living in San Diego County jumped 10.7 per cent to 34,281 last year. Military personnel dropped from 119,943 to 119,664 though military payroll increased 5 per cent from $965 million to $1.025 billion.

Housing Aid Offer Draws 1,800 Requests

The San Diego County Housing Authority, so far this month, has accepted over 1,800 applications for rental assistance for lower income families, the elderly, and the handicapped. 16 families have been issued "Certficates of Family Participation" and two housing assistance payments contracts have been executed between the Authority and landlords on behalf of two eligible families.

An additional 50 families will likely receive certificates this week, Karla Cohn, housing coordinator said.

Owners of rental property interested in listing their properties with the Authority, or who with to discuss the program should call 236-2307 weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

All families and individuals who are certificated as eligible for the program will pay 25 per cent or less of their gross income as rent. The difference between the payment and the rest charged will be paid by the Housing Authority directly to the landlord under a Housing Assistance Contract.

The Authority is continuing to accept applications for rental assistance from lower income families, the elderly, and the handicapped. Those families and individuals who believe they may be eligible should call 236-4794 between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Visitor Center Eyed For Borrego Springs

A visitor center at Anza Borrego Desert State Park is being sponsored by State Senate pro Tempore James R. Mills.

The center will orient visitors, provide animal and plant displays and give visitors a better understanding of what to see and do in the park, Mills said.

The 500,000 acre park surrounds the town of Borrego Springs.

Mills program will cost $400,000.

Animal Park Open Later

The San Diego Wild Animal Park is operating on its spring schedule. The park, which has closed at 4 p.m. throughout the winter, now stays open one hour longer.

Bank to Try Varied Home Loan Rates

Bank of America has announced the introduction of a pilot program offering variable rate real estate loans to California customers.

The new program will make available single-family home loans with interest rates that decrease or increase according to changes in a cost-of-money index.

The pilot begins May 1 and is conducted in the bank's 61 community offices and agencies in San Diego County.

A bank spokesman said the program "provides today's families with a flexible home loan plan with initial interest rates 1/4 per cent lower than the bank's fixed-rate home loan."

In addition to offering flexibility, the program will help insure the availability of funds for new real estate loans during periods of tight money and facilitate the resale of homes through its assumability features.
